

World Book Day

WORLD BOOK
DAY

4 MARCH 2021

- Naas CBS

- World Book Day Challenge

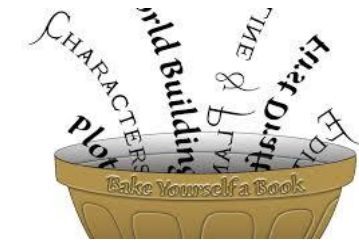

- Have a look at some of the ideas suggested.
- The most creative submissions will win a prize.
- Submission deadline Friday 5th of March.
- Entries made to your English Teachers Google Classroom Assignment – World Book Day.
- Get creative to be in with a chance to win.

Get Caught Reading

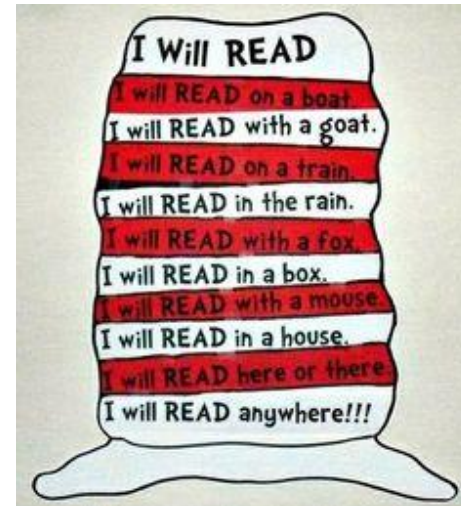

- Choose:
- A book
- A place
- A pose

Bake a book or a poem – bake/decorate a cake that is inspired by your favourite literary creation.

Write a poem about the joy of reading

BETWEEN THE PAGES OF A BOOK
— IS A — LOVELY PLACE TO BE

READING
gives us
SOMEPLACE to go when we have to STAY where we are

“The more you read
the more things you know.
The more that you learn the more places you’ll go.”
-Dr. Seuss

Write a short story/ poem inspired by the title of your favourite song

Poem 5

Hooked on a feeling:
mama told me not to come – I'll be there.
Quit playing games with my heart.
Lights?
It's still rock and roll.
To me,
it's my life:
summer breeze,
sweet soul music,
Creeque Alley.

Poem 2

Take me out,
Earth Angel (will you be mine?).
Drive,
stray cat.
Strut
around the world God only knows,
calling America:
"reflektor."
"Here I go again,"
– prayer of the refugee.

Let's get ARTY

Create a piece of Art inspired by your favourite book

Best Dressed – create a costume inspired by your favourite book/character and upload the photo

Create a bookmark with an inspirational quote about reading or a top ten reading list

- Record a chapter reading of a book you love- include sound effects/ music.

1111

What is this book title?

Code Orange

A Clockwork Orange

The image shows a red alarm clock, a grey gear, and an orange fruit. Below the images are two radio button options: 'Code Orange' and 'A Clockwork Orange'.

Create a book title with items from around your house